Video 4: Are we allowed to bring our own bread to feed the animals? Narrator: Unfortunately, we do not allow visitors to bring their own bread or any other food to feed the animals. Our animal residents have specific dietary plans that need to be followed to ensure their health and well-being. Visitors are welcome to purchase specially-formulated animal food at the park or see the animals up close and personal through our Animal Encounters. Shots Required: EDITOR-Text on screen with Question:  Are we allowed to bring our own bread to feed the animals? F5V4C1 MS Guest petting animal at petting farm, smiling  F5V4C2 MS Animal eating its own food on exhibit  F5V4C3 MS Guest purchasing approved food, smiling  F5V4C4 MS Guest feeding approved food to animal, smiling  F5V4C5 MS Animal up close to camera EDITOR-Text on screen with logo and contact information:  Website: olygamefarm.com	Video 5: What is the difference between a wildlife park and a game farm? Narrator: Wildlife parks and game farms both offer opportunities to see animals up close, but there are differences. Wildlife parks often focus on conservation and rehabilitation while game farms focus on breeding animals for specific purposes like meat and fur. Olympic Game Farm is a unique experience that allows visitors to experience a range of animals in a unique habitat and setting that promotes their educational mission. Shots Required: EDITOR-Text on screen with Question:  What is the difference between a wildlife park and a game farm? F5V5C1 WS: Olympic Game Farm entrance area and sign  F5V5C2 MS: Various animals on exhibit-multiple takes/angles  F5V5C3 MS: Car entering tour and driving along  F5V5C4 MS: Animal up close to vehicle, guests smiling  F5V5C5 WS: Pan Scenic shots of farm EDITOR-Text on screen with logo and contact information:  Website: olygamefarm.com	Video 6: Call to Action Narrator: We hope we were able to answer your frequently asked questions and provide you with a better idea of what to expect on your visit to Olympic Game Farm. CLIENT NOTES	VIDEOGRAPHER NOTES

If anything needs to be staged, please have someone available to play the role of each mentioned person. This includes anyone giving a testimonial (if applicable). If any props and/or locations are needed to stage or set the scene, please have that prepared as well. Specific locations are to be chosen at the discretion of the client and videographer and is the responsibility of the client to have planned. CGI is not responsible for setting up people, props, or locations unless specifically noted on your shot list.

You may see some highlighted item(s) in yellow. If so, these items are information, photos (large .jpeg or .png format), footage, or logos that need to be sent to us.

After reviewing the shot list, please respond to my email with your approval or feedback for revisions. If you would like to discuss the shot list over the phone please call:
Producer – NAME : DIRECT LINE

After reviewing the shot list, please respond with any questions you may have. If you would like to discuss the shot list over the phone please call:
